

Certification for Teaching Life Catalyst Curriculum

Life Catalyst Curriculum is used to mentor/teach/coach your clients. The curriculum has been used for break-out sessions in churches, classes for community help, court-appointed classes, youth classes and Life Skills class. Also, this material has been used for parenting support groups and parenting classes. Where ever there is a need, this curriculum can be adapted. It has been used in Prison Ministry. Many counselors have used the curriculum as a resource. See a need and meet a need!

Included is training for certification to teach this curriculum. Once the training is completed and an exam taken, your certificate is issued for teaching this curriculum.
